

BUSINESS NOTES

J. & J. Slater, shoe stylists and merchants, is opening two Florida stores, one at Miami Beach and the other at Palm Beach.

Roger Kent, men's clothing retailers, has opened a store in the Lampoon Building, Harvard Square, Cambridge, Mass. Mal Malone, formerly of the Roger Kent store in New Haven, is in charge.

Harold G. Disque, district sales manager of the Brooklyn Edison Company's South Brooklyn office for the last twenty-eight years, retired yesterday. He had been with the company for thirty-one years. Edward J. Slane, former Williamsburg district sales manager, succeeds him.

Lande & Miskend, Inc., makers of Yolande hand-made silk lingerie, has taken over the business of Arista Hand Maids, Inc.

Munson G. Shaw Sr. has resigned from Alex D. Shaw & Co., Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of National Distillers Products Corporation.

The Warner Brothers school of corsetry will be repeated at the Astor Hotel for three days beginning Jan. 17. The school was first held last August.