The January meeting of the Association was held this evening with dinner at the Hotel Continental. There were 77 members and guests present.

President Slate greeted to members after the dinner and announced the death of another members since the last meeting--Mr. Lester H. Lyon.

Several new members were introduced by the secretary who also read a review of the doings of our Board of Directors since the last association meeting.

Traffic Officer Tom Burke was a guest of the association. When he arose to take a bow he received a rousing reception. His many years of traffic service in the square has been greatly appreciated by the those doing business here. He has reached the retirement ago.

The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting and they were approved as read.

Chairman Edwin R. Sage of the Municipal Affairs Committee spoke briefly on the new MTA fares and the advisability of having more 2 hour parking meters just out side the square. He also requested that letters of commendation for the expert handling of the new traffic regulations by the Police Department be sent to Chief King and Captain Maher of the Traffic Bureau. Chief King announced shortly that there would be more 2 hour parking meters installed on Eliot Street and near the Cambridge Common and the Sumner Statue.

January 18, 1950

The Board of Directors at a polled meeting voted to request the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce to have the City Manager allow the City Solicitor to be present at the hearing on January 24th before the Public Utilities board on the new MTA fare rates.

A regular meeting of our association was held this evening with dinner at the Hotel Continental. There were 60 members and guests present.

Presided Slate presided at the business session and the secretary introduced several of the new members.

The records of the previous meeting were not read as we were having several speakers and the President asked that they be dispensed with.

There were no reports of the Standing Committees and no new business.

Mr. Alfred Clifford spoke on the Red Cross Campaign and Mrs. Southworth Lancaster of the Cambridge Art Association on the work and purpose of this association.

The secretary read a letter from Miss Helen P. O'Malley, Chairman of Supply, of the Red Cross, asking the procurement of various articles for hospitals.

Mr. Robert H.W. Welch, Jr., our guest speaker, was then introduced. His subject was "A Business Man Looks At England". It was most informative. A question period followed and he was given a rousing rising vote of thanks at the conclusion.

We adjourned at 9,10 P.M.

The first meeting with dinner of our association of the new season was held this evening at the Hotel Continental. There were 132 members and guests present, who enjoyed a special steak dinner.

President Slate presided and after greeting the assemblage and announcing that this evening we were celebrating our Fortieth Anniversary, he turned the meeting over to Mr. Rodney Sage, the Chairman of the Anniversary Committee. He introduced the distinguished guests at the head tables and they all took a bow. A telegram of congratulation was read from the Putnam Square Business Men's Association. The program is herewith attached for the records.

City Manager Atkinson was then introduced and he commended the association for its interest in civic affairs and expressed confidence in the future of Harvard Square.

We were then entertained by John Nicol Mark with "A Bit of Scotch".

Mayor Crane spoke interestingly of the many problems of local interest and said the City Council was about to study a report by the Planning Board regarding the traffic and parking in the Harvard Square area.

Congressman Kennedy, who was to have been our principal speaker, was unable to be present on account of a mixup in his schedule of appointments.

We adjourned at 10 P.M.
