Motel Under Construction Near Harvard Square

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—A three-story brick motel with 57 rooms is being built over an existing parking lot on the edge of Harvard Square. It will cater to visitors to Harvard and Radcliffe and Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Parking for 85 cars will be on the first two levels with the motel above. There'll be a drive-in registration desk.

The project, scheduled to be completed about March 1, is a venture of the Treadway Inn and New England Motels, Inc.
