

A meeting of the Association was held on Tuesday evening,
January 17, 1967 at 6:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn, Cambridge.
There were 39 members present.

In the absence of both the President and the Vice President, the Secretary, Gerald Downing, presided.

Mr. Downing introduced the Treasurer, Robert Snow, who spoke briefly on the Christmas lighting in Harvard Square and the expenses involved. He stated that he wished that everyone would send in their contributions if they had not already done so because the organization was running a deficit.

There being no further business, the Secretary then introduced our guest speaker for the evening, Robert Tonis, Chief of the Police Department of Harvard University. Chief Tonis gave us a very enlightening talk on what was required of the police force at the college and how they cooperated in every way with the Cambridge Police Department. The speech was very well received and there were a number of questions asked.

Meeting adjourned at 9 p.m.

A meeting of the Association was held on Tuesday evening, March 14, 1967 at 6 p.m. at Igo's Restaurant, Cambridge. There were 46 members present.

President Williams presided and welcomed everyone there. Mr. Downing read the Secretary's report of the last meeting which was accepted.

Mr. Downing then brought to the attention of the members that he had had numerous complaints about the Harvard Square area not being properly policed on Saturdays. It was voted that the Secretary write a letter to the City Manager about this situation.

Mr. Downing then spoke briefly on the coming Annual Meeting and the fact that there would be three new Directors elected. He also spoke about the summer outing to be held at the Oakley Country Club after Harvard University closes in June.

There being no further business, the President then introduced our guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Walter Sullivan, a member of the City Council of Cambridge and Assistant Clerk of Courts, who was to give us an illustrated talk on "You, the Jury". Mr. Sullivan, however, found that part of his projector had been inadvertently forgotten so that we had a break of about a half an hour until he could have it brought to the meeting. During this intermission, Mr. Downing asked James Freeburn if he would talk for a few minutes on his experience on serving on the jury at the recent DiSalvo case, which was most interesting. Finally, Mr. Sullivan took over the meeting and gave us a very interesting talk and there were many questions asked afterwards.

Meeting adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

Secretary

President Jack Williams presided and welcomed those present.

He then called on the Secretary, Gerald Downing, who read the report of the last Directors' meeting and also the report of the last association meeting, which were approved.

Mr. Downing then spoke briefly about the coming outing which is to be held on June 27th at the Oakley Country Club.

Robert B. Snow, Treasurer, read his Treasurer's report for the past year which was approved.

In the absence of John Hallisey, our Auditor, Gerald Downing read the annual Auditor's report which was approved.

The following officers were nominated for reelection for the coming year:

Jack Williams	President
Robert Doyle	Vice President
Robert B. Snow	Treasurer
Gerald J. Downing	Secretary
John J. Hallisey	Auditor

The following Directors were also nominated:

For a period of three years

Nicholas Christopher
Arthur Barr
Robert Malloy

The Chair asked for any other nominations and there being none, it was moved that the nominations be closed and that the Secretary cast one ballot for each nominee and the Chair then declared them elected.

There being no further business to discuss, President Jack Williams then introduced our guest speaker for the evening, Joseph DeGuglielmo, City Manager of Cambridge. Mr. DeGuglielmo gave us a very fine resume of things going on in Cambridge and also some idea of the future plans for the City of Cambridge.

Mr. DeGuglielmo spoke for over an hour which everyone present enjoyed. There were questions from the floor following his speech.

Meeting adjourned at 9:10 p.m.

HARVARD SQUARE BUSINESSMEN'S ASSOCIATION

AUDITOR'S REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1967

I have made an examination of the Harvard Square Businessmen's Association consisting of the books of account and the related statements of receipts of disbursements for the year ending March 31, 1967.

My examination was made in accordance with the generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

It is my opinion, that the Treasurer's report sets forth the results of the Association's operations for the year and its financial condition as disclosed by the books of the Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,

John J. Hallisey, Auditor

Mr. Downing then called on the new members to rise and be introduced to those present.

There being no further business to discuss Mr. Williams then introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Robert Rudolph, Traffic Manager for the City of Cambridge, who spoke to the members about the traffic situation in Cambridge, and particularly in the Harvard Square area.

There were many questions asked from the floor after Mr. Rudolph's speech.

A meeting of the Association was held on Thursday evening,
November 30, 1967 at 6 p.m. at Igo's Restaurant, Cambridge.
There were 41 members present.

The meeting was called to order by our President, Jack Williams. The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved.

Mr. Williams then spoke briefly about the trouble in Harvard Square recently with regard to the publication and selling of the newspaper "Avatar" and everyone present was very dismayed at the fact that such a thing could happen in the Square or any other community. Our City Manager, who happened to be present at the meeting, then spoke to us on what steps the City was taking to alleviate this trouble.

Mr. Williams then introduced Charles Wolfe who spoke briefly about the Christmas lighting.

There being no further business, our President then turned the meeting over to the Secretary who introduced Dr. Andrew Kernulas who sat at the head table and who has agreed to be a guest speaker at a future meeting.

Mr. Downing then introduced the guest speakers for the evening, Messrs. Manning Williams and John Daly, Trust Officers of the Harvard Trust Company, who gave us a very enlightening talk on the Kehoe Bill, which was very well received. There were many questions following their talk.

Meeting adjourned at 9:15 p.m.
