The regular monthly meeting with dinner was held this evening at the Hotel Continental. There were 83 members and guests present.

The business meeting was presided over by Vice-President Dow in the absence of President Rodney Sage, who was out of town.

The secretary introduced 7 new members who had not previously been presented to the members.

It was voted to dispense with the reading of the records of the previous meeting.

Mr. Edwin R. Sage reported briefly for the Municipal Affairs Committee and stated it was expected that the new modern street lighting in this area would soon be installed upon the arrival of the necessary equipment.

The secretary reported that parking meters in the square would be installed in the spring and the matter was in the hands of Police Chief King and the local Planning Board.

The secretary stated at the meeting of the Board of Directors held on January 20, the petition from several property owners and business men on Church Street, objecting to the present traffic regulations prohibiting entrance to Church Street from Massachusetts Avenue, was discussed and it was voted to go on record as against this regulation and to favor both way entrance to Church Street and no parking on the southerly side of Church Street between Brattle and Church Streets. It was voted to so notify Police Chief King. It was also voted to send ^{to him} a letter of commendation for his interest in the traffic situation in the square and for the satisfactory solution as a result of his suggestion for parallel parking on Brattle Street in front of the Post office etc.

There was some discussion on this Church Street regulation and at its conclusion the chair invited those who had suggestions to contact one of the Directors for further consideration.

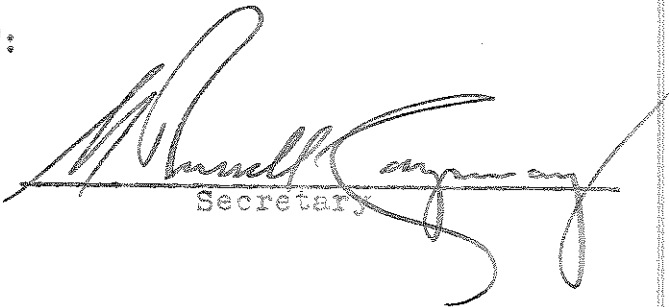

The business meeting then was adjourned and the Chairman introduced our guest speaker, Prof. Joseph L. Snider, of the Harvard Business School, who spoke to us on "The Present Business Situation". The chair thanked the speaker on behalf of those present, at his conclusion for the splendid talk.

Chairman Dow, as a representative of the Red Cross, then spoke of the coming drive of this worthy organization.

The Cambridge Chronicle-Sun donated copies of its recent Centennial issue for free distribution to those present.

We adjourned at 8:55 P.M.

March 31, 1947

The Board of Directors held a meeting this morning at the rooms of the Cambridge Trust Company. Pres. Rodney Sage and Directors Knapp, Olsson, Dow, E. Sage, Phippen, Snow, Calvin and Cazmay were present.

The matter of the new parking meter regulations were discussed. Mr. Stanley Sumner was present and expressed his view on the matter and objected to having these regulations enforced after 6 P.M. It was the unanimous opinion that they should be enforced only from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. It was voted that the secretary send a letter to the City Manager stating that the meters had greatly improved the parking facilities but that our group was strongly opposed to the enforcements of this ordinance in the Harvard Square area after 6 p.m. and ask that he take steps to modify this ordinance.

The annual outing was then discussed and it was voted to hold same on Monday, June 23rd at the Marlborough Country Club in Marlborough, Mass. The menu and committees to be selected later.

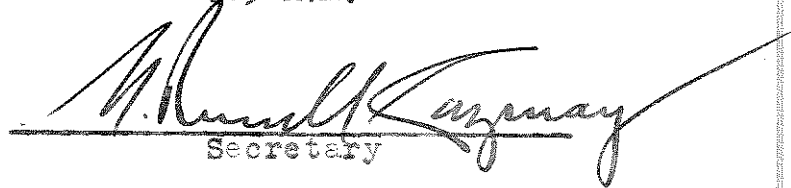

The Board voted to hold all its dinner meetings the coming season at the Hotel Continental.

The State school sale tax of one cent was discussed and it was the consensus of opinion that the distribution was bad for Cambridge but it was felt there would be many changes in the original proposal and the matter was laid on the table.

April 14, 1947

The Association held its annual meeting with dinner this evening at the Hotel Commander.

There were 65 members and guests present.

President Rodney Sage presided and after the dinner stated that this was our 37th annual meeting and asked the three remaining charter members- Messrs. Frederic A. Olsson, Edwin B. Powell and Edwin R. Sage, to arise and take a bow.

It was voted to dispense with the reading of the records of the previous meeting.

The chair announced that the Board of Directors had voted to hold the annual outing in June at the Marlborough Country Club at Marlborough, Mass. The President also said that the Board had discussed the proposed state school sales tax and it was the consensus of opinion that the distribution was unfair for Cambridge but it was felt there would be several changes from the original proposal and that we should not take any definite action at the present time.

There were no Standing Committee reports other than their annual reports.

The annual reports of the officers and the Standing Committees were then read and accepted and ordered placed on file.

The election of officers followed and Mr. James F. Danehy presented the following slate which had the endorsement of our Board of Directors:
